

San Joaquin Geological Society

December 13, 2016

What Will Make the AAPG Relevant to You?

by

Dan Schwartz, AAPG Vice President of Sections

BIOGRAPHY

Academic Degrees

- 1978: Ph.D., geology, University of Texas, Dallas
- 1974: B.S., geology, University of California, Berkeley

Experience

- 2014-Present: Manager-strategic business development, new ventures, innovation, Aera Energy, Bakersfield, Calif.
- 2009-14: Manager-exploration and appraisal, Aera Energy (Shell Secondment), Bakersfield, Calif.
- 2005-09: Chief petroleum engineer and regional exploration consultant, Shell International E&P, Houston
- 2003-05: Chief geologist, Shell EP Americas, Houston
- 2001-03: Manager-basin evaluation team, Shell International E&P, Houston
- 1999-01: Exploration manager-deepwater Morocco, Shell International E&P, Houston
- 1998-99: Director, Shell Capital Inc., Houston
- 1996-98: Head of business positioning, Shell EP International Ventures, Houston
- 1992-96: Head of production-geology and geophysics, Shell UK E&P, Aberdeen, Scotland
- 1985-92: Division petroleum and geological engineer, Shell Western E&P, Bakersfield, Calif.
- 1982-85: Supervisor-geological engineering research, Shell Development Co., Houston
- 1978-82: Research geologist, Shell Development Co., Houston
- 1976-77: Intern, Mobil Field Research, Plano, Texas

